WHAT ABOUT YOUR FUTURE?

by- S. G. Norris

Almost every serious-thinking young person has this baffling question with which to contend. This is especially true in the life of a Bible student. "I would not mind going to Bible School and dedicating my life to God's work; if I only had some definite plan for the future after I graduate."

One of the adversary's chief weapons has been to associate the ministry or any endeavor in God's Kingdom, whether it be at home or abroad, with poverty and a bleak future. We have all heard the expression, "Poor as a church mouse," the thought being that anything connected with church work naturally falls into the category of want and poverty.

The truth of the matter is this: There are very few fields that offer any greater assurance of a busy, active, and useful life than the various branches of the ministry. No work or sacrifice could possibly produce the peace of mind, the contentment of soul, and that wonderful all-around feeling of accomplishment that this work which has eternal values can do. Other types of work may produce higher remuneration in dollar value but nothing but the Lord's work creates the understanding that you are a co-worker and partner with God!

MARY'S FUTURE!

In St. John 19, the writer pictures the horrible scene of the crucifixion on Golgotha! Words can scarcely describe the agony of Jesus. "Others He saved, Himself He could not save!" The lashes of the soldiers, the thorns, the spittle running down His divine face! The spasms of pain as it made one part of His body and then another jerk and quiver. The screams of the crowd, the jeers of the religious rulers, the sun hiding her face and the rocks rending! What a picture of hopelessness! A bystander could easily have said, "There is no hope in the future for the followers of Christ."

WOMAN BEHOLD THY SON

The next time the question of your future arises, think of Mary at the foot of the cross. All her hopes had been wrapped around the life of her son - Jesus Christ. Now He was nearly dead. A few more groans and her future would collapse on a rugged cross. To make matters worse - she had no place to go. The home in Nazareth had long since been forsaken. The carpenter shop was out of business. Joseph, her husband, was dead.

Could anyone look into the future with such utter despair? Surely no Bible student or graduate worker for God has faced a parallel situation. So, if Christ answered for Mary, He will do the same for you.

If ever there was a time when Christ could have been excused from thinking about anyone else, it could have been while He hung on the cross. The fever of thirst rushed through His body and the sin-load of the whole world was upon Him, nevertheless, He thought of His mother's future! "Woman, behold thy son!" and to John, "Son, behold thy mother."

We were so happy to see Mary and Manuel Rogers in St. Paul again! They were here for Carol and Glen James wedding. Manuel is doing a fine work in Hamburg, Arkansas.

Hugh Pose, Nathaniel Urshan's associate pastor, was also here for the wedding. We enjoyed his ministry in song.

Bob Sabin has a beautiful church in Winona, Minnesota. This spacious church building is well-equipped, even with a pipe organ. Pray for the work in this town. This is a wonderful opportunity for Christ.

Rev. Kyle Minniear has a church building in St. Paul Park, Minn. He is busy now preparing it for opening soon.

Delores Stine and James Slater will be married June 29 at Bethel Temple Pentecostal Church, Decatur, Illinois. Both are A.B.I. students.

Ilene Kloepper, former English teacher at A.B.I., is the secretary at the Tupelo Children's Mansion, Box 327 E. Tupelo, Miss.

Lois Duffey and Ken Hobson will be married in Elwood, Indiana on June 22.

LePoy Buller with his wife, Evelyn, will be evangelizing in the South this summer.

Another fine evangelist going out from the school is Sam Latta. Sam is a firebrand for God! Address: 709-27th Moline, Ill.

Wayne Mitchell, 4th year graduate will also be evangelizing. Address: Wells & North Madisonville Kentucky.

Dannie Odle will be the assistant to Rev. J. C. Milam at Gary, Ind., in July.

The marriage of Miss Eleanor Ann Norris, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. S. G. Norris to Gerald Frederick Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Grant, of Andover, N. B., Canada, took place at Midway Pentecostal Tabernacle. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Norris.

Eleanor wore a full-length blush pink nylon organdie gown with a sweep train accented with panels of chantilly lace. She carried a bouquet of lilies.

Misses Carol Newstrand and Charolette Bowe, attendants, wore waltz length misty-blue gowns covered with white point d'esprit. Attendants for the groom were James D. Norris, and Charles Kiefling.

Miss Jeannette Murray, harpist, and Myrtle Weed, organist, played the wedding music.

The couple honeymooned in Florida, will live in Canada this summer and then return to St. Paul to live.

These few words from Christ's parched lips, just before He died, should be indeed gratifying. If our God could remember to assure Mary of her future and welfare under such negative and despairing circumstances, then no child of God who has placed his life in the hands of the Master-Pilot, need fear for tomorrow.

If Christ remembered the earthly detail of Mary's welfare under those conditions, how much more will He provide for you. Now He is in His glorified state in heaven, where He is not hemmed in by two thieves, but legions of angels are ready and willing to minister to the heirs of salvation.

CONSIDER THE LILIES

"And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you; O ye of little faith? Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you. Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof."

MARY'S FAITH

Where did Mary's faith come from? How could she wait at the cross for six agonizing hours without becoming hysterical and panic-stricken? No screams from her lips. No fainting from sheer terror. No pleading with her son as to her welfare or future. Silent patiently waiting. She had not gained such faith in a moment's time. Mary had that God-given gift of all Christian mothers- the ability to make life's problems look simple. This kind of faith comes by walking faithfully with God day by day. This kind of faith is produced by believing when all around us is in turmoil.

One of her tests of faith was in Bethlehem - "No room in the inn!" But room was provided! If the Son of God was content with a manger filled with fresh mown hay, she had no complaint about the stable.

Don't forget the "little requests" for prayer. Add those answers up one by one as you live day by day. Then remember, when it seems like your Christ and His promises for your welfare and future are being nailed to a cross of hopelessness, don't give up, don't run away, don't get hysterical. Wait on the Lord! Stand still, quietly in prayer, and you will see the salvation of God!

When the servants became panicky at the marriage feast because there was no wine, Mary's simple faith saved the situation. She humbly said, " whatsoever he saith unto you, do it." She didn't know what Jesus would do, but she knew that faith and patience on her part would witness the answer.
